Summary of Your Initial Expenses with Dr. Martin: Adult ADHD Evaluation

SESSION	PROCEDURE CODE	CHARGE
Initial Interview	90791	$240
Two Sessions with Adult	90837	$380
Summary Session	90837	$190
Report. Not everybody wishes a report, but it can go to your Physician. One, two, or three hours. You may only pay copay.	96136	$400-600
	96137
	96130
	96131
TOTAL COST		$1210-1410

These are the charges submitted to insurance. You may only owe a co-pay of $15--$35 per session. Make sure you pay your copay at every session. Insurance may reduce the fee and pay Dr. Martin an adjusted amount.

All sessions are 50-60 minutes. Therapy sessions may follow the assessment and are priced at $190 per session.

Insurance may not pay for the report, or they may require separate preauthorization. Be sure you check on whether insurance will pay for the report, and what they will require for preauthorization. Have them send to me, or obtain the preauthorization for it, if it is needed for a report. The procedure codes are 96136, 96137, 96130 and 96131 for a report.

Missed appointments without a good excuse may be charged a fee of $190. Insurance does not reimburse for missed appointments.
